PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume 1 will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 4, 1833.

We invite the attention of our young men to the call of a meeting of the friends of W. W. Irwin, in our paper, to day. We trust that the honorable and high minded young men—the enemies of detraction and calumny—will give a general attendance, and resist the attempt to prostrate one of their companions.

We invite the attention of our National Republican friends to the following extract, from the United States' Gazette, the leading National Republican paper in the State, which will show the opinion the able editor of that paper entertains, as to the vote given to the Van Buren ticket.—It accords fully with what we have said upon this subject.

"It has been the reproach of Pennsylvania that she has always, on all national questions, been content to be the mere bobtail to the Virginia kite. Virginia has done "going up," and we now fear that Pennsylvania has tagged herself to N. York. The measure of "the Government," against the United States Bank, is for the benefit of N. York, and for New York only; it is a Van Buren measure; and every man who voted, on Friday, for the Van Buren ticket, strengthened the hands of the Van Buren party; and the leaders of the Van Buren party make their boast accordingly. And the advocates of the late high handed measures of the President, are sending to Washington the vote of Friday, as a proof that Philadelphia approves of the act. Does Pennsylvania—does Philadelphia approve of the act?"

CHANGES.—A few days ago, it was thought that almost the whole National Republican party, in Pittsburgh, would vote for the Van Buren ticket for the Legislature. But, latterly, considerable feeling has been excited among them, and it is now certain that they will be greatly divided. Indeed, if we except those among them who are masons, we believe that more than three fourths of the residue of that party will, as their duty directs, go for Messrs. Bayne, Irwin, Scott, and Riddle. Being fully convinced that Martin Van Buren is a corrupt and unprincipled intriguer, they cannot consent to vote for men who will aid to promote his election.

A week ago, certain leaders of the National Republican party thought that, with a very few exceptions, the whole of that party would go for the Van Buren ticket. But, on Wednesday night last, at a meeting of the National Republican young men, where twenty odd were present, resolutions against the antimasons were carried only by the casting vote of the President—and, of the majority, full one half were masons.—The editor of the Statesman considered this shadow of a victory so important as to justify the issuing of an extra.

P. S. Every hour, the prospect in Pittburgh is more cheering—the suspected interference of Messrs. Lynch & Mulvany, in making use of John B. Butler, to get up the meeting of the National Republican Association, on last Wednesday night, is producing its proper effect.—The Young Men are in motion—the old men begin to understand the matter.—Pittsburgh will do well—much better than we expected, three days ago.

THE JUNCTION CANAL.

In relation to this work, the Louisville Advertiser has the following remark.

"The Pennsylvanians propose to connect the Pennsylvania Canal, west of the Mountains, with the Ohio Canal, in order to secure to Philadelphia a participation in the commerce of the great northwestern Lakes. Commissioners are now engaged in examining various routs, and it is not improbable that the work will be speedily commenced. If a junction be formed between the Ohio and Pennsylvania Canals, the communication will be complete between Philadelphia and Cleveland, Ohio—and as the Port of Cleveland is free from ice, in the spring, several weeks earlier than the Port of Buffalo, there can be no doubt that Philadelphia will secure to herself a large portion of the rapidly increasing commerce of the Lakes."

A GROSS INSULT.—In an editorial paragrph, prefixed to the extra, issued from the Statesman office, yesterday, we find the following gross and unprovoked insult to the respectable association of the National Republican Young Men of Pittsburg. Mr. Butler, it will be recollected, opposed and condemned the course pursued by the majority of that association, last fall. The high spirited and honorable young men of that association understood and disregarded his opposition, and now he repays them by the following notice of their conduct.

"The resolutions of this patriotic association will retrieve its character, and redeem it from the odium which it incurred from its unfortunate and unnatural connection with antimasonry, and re-establish its claims to general respect and public confidence!"

PUBLIC MEETING OF YOUNG MEN!

☞The Young Men of the city of Pittsburgh, friendly to the election of W. W. Irwin to the Legislature, will meet at the 'Shakspeare House,' on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, precisely.

☞ANTIMASONIC MEETING.☜

In accordance with resolutions passed at the different Ward Meetings, the Antimasons, of the city of Pittsburgh, are respectfully invited to assemble at Wray's Hotel, in Fourth street, this evening, (Friday) at seven o'clock, precisely.

Friday, Oct. 4th, 1833.

For the Gazette.

☞TO THE YOUNG MEN OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

The mercenary, unprincipled partisans of the New York political school, are now turning all the force of their intrigues and falsehoods into one channel—their hopes now rest on their schemes to deceive and distract the Young Men.

The manner in which the National Republican Association of Young Men was recently called together, and the character of the secret instigators of that meeting, show, conclusively, that the wire workers deem it essential to their arrogant sway over our elections, that the Young Men should be divided among themselves, and not, on any occasion, be permitted to vote for one of themselves.—If the young man, who is a candidate, has shown a persevering devotion to the interests of his constituents, and has sufficient independence to disregard the dictation of corrupt political leaders, it is, to such men, an unpardonable offence: but, if he also evinces talents of a high order, and an energetic spirit, worthy of a Pittsburgher, the opposition of such men, goaded by their fears and their hatred, hurries them into the most unwarrantable acts of deception and falsehood.

The Resolutions, so ostentatiously published as the doings of the Young Men's Association, were carried by the casting vote of the Chairman, and only nine persons, including the Chairman, voted for them—yet these persons would have the public believe that the young men, generally, have been induced to declare themselves opposed to one of their own number.

If the Young Men of Pittsburgh remain supine and inactive, while these political gladiators break them down, one by one, they will still be hunted down, and their rights contemned, by political leaders.—But if they shake off apathy and indifference, and support their own men, with proper zeal and manliness, they may expect, hereafter, the consideration and respect which, from their number, intelligence, and public spirit, are fairly their due.—To the polls, then, Young Men, and by your votes, for one of your own number, show that you can neither be wheedled by tricks, nor turned, by falsehoods, from asserting your rights to a fair share in the legislative councils of your country.

A YOUNG MAN.

From the Baltimore American, of Sept. 28.

JOURNAL OF MR. DURANT'S AERIAL VOYAGE.

The Balloon was unmoored at 5 hours 27 minutes, the barometer standing at 20 42, and the thermometer at 80. In a short time let go the rabbit, and saw it land safely. At 5h. 35 was over a road, and thought of descending, but kept on. At 5h. 46 was within hailing distance of the earth, and conversed with several men; understood them to say the distance to Baltimore was 4 miles; understood their names to be Thomas and Philip Burgan. At 5h. 50 was within hailing distance again, and conversed with several persons—understood them to say, Baltimore was distant 7 miles. On inquiring the name of the first town, in the direction I was going, understood them to say Abington, and afterwards Bel Air. At 5h. 55 saw the Sun set, and heard the report of two guns; judged the sound came from W. by N. About 3 minutes previous to which, tried an experiment for a gentleman in this city, which, if it proves successful, will be given to the world. At 6h. 2, barometer 28 02, thermometer 72, I was suspended over Gunpowder river. At 6h. 9, conversed with an inhabitant; understood his name to be Mr. Carroll, and the name of the place Perry Hall—understood the name of another gentleman to be Isaac Holland, who was very communicative; he informed me I was 13 miles from Baltimore, and the next town was Bel Air—and desired I would not forget his name. At 6h. 16, again conversed; understood Bel Air was distant 5 miles. Felt anxious to see the town, having heard a good account of it before starting, by persons who told me I should go in that direction. At 6h. 22, barometer stood at 24,43, thermometer 62. At 6h. 33, both anchors grappled with the earth, about 200 feet from the Court House, in that town.—About 200 persons immediately ran up, and politely proffered help, evincing a great desire to assist me. I remained suspended about one hundred feet, until towed by them to a clear field in the middle of the town; at 6h. 44, the car touched the earth. At 6h. 53 I stepped from the car. At 7h. 12, every thing was secured—packed up, and taken to Mr. Richardson's Hotel, where I was politely received and entertained. Among the gentlemen who assisted me to alight, were Benj. Bond, Hy. Richardson, Major W. Richardson, Dr. Aug. Bond, Dr. Munnickhuysen, Col. H. Dorsey, Col. J. D. Maulsby, Joseph Robinson, Major Bradford, Mr. Dimmit, Ralph Slee. The persons over whose farms I passed, also came up, with alacrity. I must not omit to mention the attention of the ladies in taking charge of the barometer, &c. Tea was soon prepared, and I partook heartily, having tasted nothing since half past 7, A. M. The tea table was graced with the presence of a large company of ladies, and my satisfaction was heightened by the presence and attention of the Rev. R. H. Davis, and Mr. Charbonnier. After tea, we called on Colonel H. Dorsey, where a bottle of very superior old wine was produced, he having promised it to his friends in case the balloon should descend in the Village.

In the morning, I breakfasted, by invitation, with Mr. Robinson, Postmaster. I was here waited on by Mr. M'Kenny, deputed by the ladies of the lower part of the town, to express their thanks for having selected their village as the place of descent. A number of ladies called personally, and were each presented with a flower from the decorations of the Car. Left Bel Air 9h. 30, and was escorted by a cavalcade of gentlemen to the county line; the cavalcade was composed of Col. Maulsby, Mr. Boulden, Mr. Elliott, Mr. M'Kenny, Mr. Fury, Mr. Jones, W. P. Maulsby, Mr. Davis, Dr. Bond, and Dr. Munnickhuysen. Arrived at Barnum's at half past three, P. M. I should have mentioned that Mr. Richardson sent me to Baltimore in his gig, for which, as well as for my entertainment, he would receive no remuneration.

C. F. DURANT.

We understand the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company have made sundry experiments with steam on their Canal, which have proved highly satisfactory. The Boat made use of is 88 1-2 feet long on deck, 10 feet beam, and draws twelve inches of water besides a very small keel. Her paddle wheels are on the sides of the boat, they are 4 feet on the fan, and 8 feet 2 inches in diameter, the paddles are 8 inches deep. The boiler is 6 feet long by 3 feet in diameter, it is round and filled with tubs, the cylinder is 8 1-2 inches in diameter, with a stroke of piston of 2 1-2 feet. When running at a speed of 8 miles an hour she consumes 314 pounds of pine wood in one hour, and at this speed the wash on the canal banks is only about one third of that made by the passenger barges when running at the same speed.

From several experiments made with this boat, we learn that she answers remarkably well for towing vessels loaded with merchandise or produce, and it is probable that after this season, steam power will entirely supersede the use of horses on this canal.—Com. in U. S. Gaz.

The New York Evening Star deprecates the resignation of Governor Cass and Mr. M'Lane, upon the ground that "at this juncture, when an unfortunate influence seems to prevail at Washington, their places might be filled with more pliant, but less acceptable citizens." There is some force in this suggestion; but would not the immediate effect and lasting example of a resignation, under all the circumstances, be exceedingly salutary? "The measure," as it affects the laws and constitution, and the rights and claims of Congress, and the treatment of Mr. Duane, as it affects the general situation of each of the members of the cabinet, would seem to require something more as an expression of dissent, disapproval, and the assertion of official privilege and dignity, than is yet authentically extant. Is there any constitutional monarchy in which there would not be an immediate general dissolution of the ministry, if the monarch acted towards one of them, and against the advice of the majority, on "principle and expediency," as President Jackson has done in regard to Mr. Duane and the Bank of the United States? and acted thus, too, under the direction and by the agency of a dominant cabal—a pseudo cabinet? From the outset, the Secretary of the Treasury was set aside. The negotiation with the State Banks was instituted and pursued without his concurrence; so, the inquisition of the four government directors, in the Bank; "the measure" of the removal of the deposits was resolved on and arranged in the teeth of his remonstrances; for his honest noncompliance and protest, he was abruptly dismissed from his office, and most contumeliously used in the official paper. We should have thought that the esprit de corps, the mere sympathy of common station, would work effectually at once.—Nat. Gaz.

Tomato Tarts.—As Tomatoes are now in season, we will be excused for calling the attention of housekeepers to the virtues of this valuable vegetable. Besides their uses for Ketchup, Pickle, Preserves, Soups, Gravies, &c. it is not generally known that they answer a valuable purpose for Pies or Tarts. We have eaten of them ourselves, and think them a little inferior to peaches, prepared in a similar way. Take ripe tomatoes, peel and cut them in slices, then stew them with sugar, spice, &c., afterwards lay them in crust and bake. With half a chance, tomatoes may be raised in any garden—they take up but little room, and require but little attention, and are in season from early in summer till late in the fall. They are capable of being used in a greater variety of ways than any other vegetable or fruit we are acquainted with, and are excellent in every one.—Southern Planter.

In Mr. Flint's Indian Wars of the West, he relates the following singular circumstances—which it will puzzle the gownsmen satisfactorily to explain.

"On the side of a mountain, in Tennessee, are the marks of the footsteps of men and horses in the limestone in great numbers, and as though they were the tracks of an army. Some of the tracks show, as if the army had slipped in miry clay. All have the appearance of being an actual impression in soft clay, which afterwards hardened to stone, retaining a perfect impression.—Characters of great freshness of coloring, are marked upon many of the high bluffs, that impend the western rivers. Inscriptions of this sort are found in Missouri, on the Illinois, and in various other places. A remarkable track of human foot was found in a solid block of limestone, on the bank of the Mississippi, at St. Louis. The most ancient traditions of the West do not touch the origin of these mounds or characters."

Property.—The valuation of estate, in the city of New York, is as follows:

Personal, - -	$ 54,474,110
Real, - - -	114,907013
Total, - -	$169,381,123

Of the above amount, the first ward of the city furnishes the following great proportion:

Personal, - -	$26,051,869
Real, - - -	22,521,104
Total, - -	$48,572,913

Egypt.—The Journal de Smyrne gives the following account of the seizure of the property of the merchants at Cairo, by the direction of Mehemet Ali. He despatched orders for the seizure of all the Mocha Coffee which had been forwarded to that city by the European and native merchants, and caused it to be conveyed to his own warehouses, without any verification of marks and weights. The merchants, thus plundered, addressed their complaints to their respective consuls; but, owing to a radical defect in the system of European relations with Egypt, England is the only country which maintains a diplomatic as well as commercial agent; and the consuls of other powers are too much occupied with diplomacy, to pay much attention to other matters. The reason assigned for this act of violence was, that the coffee was required for the consumption of the country; but it was generally believed that the object of the government was to take revenge for the refusal of the cultivators of Yemen to bring their coffee into Egypt, at whatever price it might please the Viceroy to prescribe.

In consequence of this refusal, he has heretofore been compelled to send to purchase it at Jidda.—The effect of the representation of the consuls was not ascertained, but the Journal says that the Viceroy has but one reply on these occasions, "that he is master in his own dominions, and that those who dislike his policy are at liberty to leave the country."

Another decisive measure of the Viceroy was a recent order that all the Saraffs, or money brokers, should close their offices on pain of death. All the Turkish money in possession of these persons has been confiscated, and the money destroyed.—This is stated to have been done because the merchants refused to receive the money of the country, on account of its debasement, at any rate beyond its real value.—Poulson, Sept. 30.

The Van Buren party have resolved to make the cry of "down with the Bank," their signal in the approaching Presidential contest, hoping thereby to excite as much zeal in their cause as the cry "down with Bastile" did in the day of Revolutionary Paris. We trust these worthy and public spirited gentlemen may be disappointed by the coming Congress, whose material will, we hope, be such as to ensure the rechartering of that valuable institution. Pennsylvania, to whom that institution is dear, has redeemed her reputation by displacing the only Representative who voted against its recharter, and sending one who is favorably disposed to it in his place.—Pennsylvania Republican.

The President charges the Bank with paying printers to support it. It was the right, and even the duty of the officers of that institution to do so. It was assailed with the most virulent and wanton abuse, by the most scurrilous press that ever insulted public decency, and what were they to do? Sit still and see the interests of the stockholders sacrificed without making an effort in their favor? The course of the Bank was not only natural, but proper. Provided the stockholders are willing to pay for the printing of these articles, Gen. Jackson surely has no right to object. They suffer, and not he.—Richmond Whig.

The Deposits.—The bonds for October which had been deposited in the U. S. Bank, were withdrawn on Saturday. The local Banks which have been selected as agents for the government, have received a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, in which among other things he says, that as the revenue is derived from duties on importations, and the ability of importing merchants to sustain their business, must depend in some measure upon the facility with which they are able to procure bank accommodations, he recommends that if preferences are given at all, they should be in favor of those who have bonds to discharge.—N. Y. Jour. of Com.

The Richmond Enquirer gives a melancholy account of the marriage and death of Alfred Street, of the firm of Sanxay & Street, of that city. "In the course of one day he was a bridegroom and a corpse! In the last moments of his existence, his betrothed united her destinies with his to entitle her to the privilege of performing the last offices for her husband."

From Mexico.—The mortality, occasioned by the Cholera, has been no where so severe on this continent as it is represented to be in Mexico.—The population of that city is about one hundred and seventy thousand, out of which fourteen thousand, (or about one in every twelve,) are said to have died of this disease. Were not these frightful accounts received from several quarters, and substantially confirming each other, we should be led to doubt their correctness, from the appalling magnitude of the calamity.

The disease was prevailing in many other places in the Republic, and particularly in the army, where it is so fatal that hostilities have been suspended between the contending parties. It had also appeared at Vera Cruz, and, at the last advices, was still existing, but in a milder form. In consequence of these two calamities, of cholera and civil war, business was dull at Mexico, and the government was not able to despatch the conducta, as intended, not having troops to spare for an escort. The cholera had selected its victims exclusively from the poorer classes of the people.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

The objection made to the power which one man holds over the United States Bank, in the President's expose, applies with full force to the Manhattan Bank, selected in this city to receive the deposits. The Bank is avowedly under the control of one person, and we are credibly informed that the greatest part of the Bank is owned in England; and by the peculiar nature of the investment, the whole Bank, in a certain number of years, must become the sole property of this foreign family. We thus go from one extreme to another. A history of the original charter of the Bank of America, another of the banks selected, may hereafter prove interesting to those who know little of the bribery and corruptions practised in our lobbies.—N. Y. Evening Star.

The singular inattention of Wellington to his dress procured him—during the time of his residence in Paris, in 1814—the appellation of Vilianton.

But all warriors have not been so negligent.—Julius Cæsar was so remarkably neat in his general appearance that Cicero said he did not think that one who was so particular in adjusting his hair and decorating his person, could harbor any feasible designs against the integrity of the commonwealth.—Cicero judged from general experience; but Cæsar was an eminent exception in many instances.—Philadelphia Sentinel.

The Wife of Don Pedro.—The Empress, in the expression of her countenance, accredits fully the character she has acquired, not only for good nature, but great good sense and natural talents.—She has also many accomplishments. This Princess is the second wife of Don Pedro, by whom she has one daughter, born at Paris, a few weeks before his departure. She was herself the daughter of Eugene Beauharnois, and is niece to the present King of Bavaria.

She is stated to possess considerable influence with her husband—it might not have been the worse for his fortunes if she had yet more, for he has had some counsellors far inferior to his wife. As it is, I am fully convinced, from various circumstances which have come to my knowledge, that he has a real affection for her person, and a great respect for her understanding. I am credibly informed that she was one of the most urgent of those who incited him to the bold step taken in assertion of his rights.—Narrative, &c., by Colonel Hodges.

Among the many rebuffs which Dunning, afterwards Lord Ashburton, received from witnesses whom he examined crossly as well as cross-examined, we may note one where he had petulently importuned a reduced gentleman to declare in his evidence, why he had taken up his lodging 'within the verge of the court.' The gentleman, after many hesitations to answer, and many reiterated queries, at length said (not merely in allusion to the privilege legally conferred by residing within the verge of the court, but to the conduct of the annoying barrister)—'To escape the rascally impertinence of DUNNING.'

The Memphis Advocate, of the 4th ult., states, that on the 1st, the steamboat Lady Franklin passed that place with a cargo of 15,000 chickens, and an almost unprecedented number of other live stock, bound for the New Orleans market.

The Boston Post says—"There is a boarding house in this city where lodgers never die—for as soon as they are taken sick, they are turned out of doors."

Several of the most respectable papers of Virginia strongly condemn "the measure" of the removal of the deposits, and the treatment of the late upright Secretary of the Treasury. In the Northern gazettes, generally, there is a similar tone of reprobation.—Nat. Gaz.

United States Bank Stock.—The cash sales at N. York, on Saturday, were at 189 3-8, which is an advance of 3-8 on Friday, and 1 5-8 advance on Monday's prices.—Nat. Gaz.

The Globe, of yesterday, announces the completion of the plan for the removal of the deposits.—It is quite in character with the whole transaction, and the consistency of those who have accomplished it, that—after the vulgar and ignorant slang put into President's Veto Message, and constantly harped on in the Globe, about the mischief of foreign capital and foreign stockholders—the Manhattan Bank, of which the control belongs notoriously to foreign stockholders, should be selected as one of the agents to perform the duties which the United States Bank, because, among other alleged reasons of its foreign stockholders, is to be incapaciated longer to perform.—N. Y. Amer.

Banking.—We learn that the Girard Bank of this city and the Manhattan Bank of New York, have made arrangements with the American agent of the Rothschilds, of London, for the loan of One Million and a half dollars each.

Extracts from the Review of the Philadelphia Market, for the week ending Saturday evening, Sept. 30—collected for the United States Gazette, from Actual Sales.

COTTON—There has been no arrivals since our last report. In the early part of the week, advices to the 24th August, were received by the New York packet ships Napoleon and Victoria—the sales in that market during the preceding week, were 44,900 bales, at an advance of 1-2 c., 3-4 d., stg. per lb. We have only to report the sale of a few bales of New Orleans, at 16 a 17 cts.; 15 bales damaged at 6 1-2 a 7 cts., on 4 to 9 months credit.

COFFEE.—Sales of 40 bags Porto Rico Coffee at 12 1-2 c., 4 mos.; 100 bags Rio at 12 1-2c., 4 mos.; 50 bags Laguira, common, at 13 c., 4 mos.; and 50 bags St. Domingo, at 12 1-2 cts.

FLOUR.—The demand for Superfine Flour has been rather better during the past week than for some time back, sales to the extent of 5,500 bbls. have been made—about 2,200 bbls. were taken, we understand, at an average of $6 50, it being a superior article, and manufactured expressly for the Buenos Ayres market. The balance of the sales were made at $6, this being the market price. Rye Flour is in very good request, at $3 75—sales of upwards of 800 bbls. have been reported at that price—it is becoming scarce. A parcel of Scraped Flour, at $5 75. Corn Meal in bbls. sells at $3 37 1-2, and hhds. at $14 50. The sales of Superfine Flour on the Schuylkill side have been confined to small parcels, amounting in all about 400 bbls. at $6.

SUGARS.—The sales of Sugar during the week has been to a considerable extent, at for 180 bags Isle of France Sugar, $8 1-4 cts.; 100 hhds. Trinidad, at 8 1-4 cts., 6 mos.; 180 hhds. St. Jago do., at 9 1-4 cts., 6 mos.; 50 boxes brown St. Jago, at 8 3-4 cts., 6 mos.; and 40 boxes white Havana, 10 cts., 6 months.

WHISKEY.—Holders have advanced their prices, and are firm at for bbls. 33 cts.; at which prices sales have been made; hhds. are held at 32 cents, but no sales reported—several parcels have been sold on the Schuylkill side, at 32 1-2 a 33 cents, from Store.

WOOL.—The demand for Wool still continues good, and sales of upwards of 20,000 lbs. fleece and pulled have been made at quotations. We also report the sale of a prime lot of Western fleeces, at 75 cents, and a lot of pulled, No. 1, at 52 cts., and a parcel of Merino do. at 60 cts.; and 2,000 lbs. of tub washed, at prices not transpired, and a small lot of American Saxony, at 94 cts.

NEW YORK MARKET, Sept. 28.

Cotton was higher yesterday: the stock has become so light that holders are quite indifferent, and buyers have been compelled to offer prices quite as high as at the highest point of the season.—Western Flour is $5 5-8 a $5 69 c., for common to good brands: there is very little of common brands, and so hardly any thing to be had under $5 69. Potashes have advanced to $4 50 sales, and buyers. Pearls as before.—Journal of Commerce.

Dr. Pratt's Artificial Nipples,

FOR THE CURE OF EXCORIATED, OR SORE NIPPLES—Just received and for sale by JOHN M. SNOWDEN, Jr. & Co., corner of Market and Fourth streets, Pittsburgh.
September 20, 1833.

TESTIMONIALS.

New Haven, May 17, 1832.

I have witnessed the application of the Artificial Nipple, invented by Dr. Pratt. It operated well, much to the satisfaction of the mother. The instrument seems well adapted for such as are afflicted with excoriated nipples.
THOMAS HUBBARD, M.D.
Professor of Surgery in Medical Institution of Yale College, Connecticut.

I have examined Dr. Pratt's Artificial Nipple, and am of opinion that it will answer the purpose extremely well. We have no other contrivance of this kind which affords the necessary relief; and I feel confident that the nipples prepared will be found eminently useful.
JOHN EBERLE, M. D.
Cincinnati, Aug. 28, 1833.

Having witnessed the artificial Nipple, invented by Dr. Pratt, in several cases of excoriated nipples, in which children attach themselves as readily as they would to the natural one, (and received their fill with perfect ease to the mother,) I have no hesitation of recommending it as decidedly superior to any thing of the kind with which I am acquainted. T. P. BEERS, M. D.
Professor of Obstetricks.
New Haven, May 16, 1832.

I have witnessed the application of the above mentioned instrument in a case of excoriated nipples, and fully coincide with Dr. Beers, in the opinion expressed above. V. M. DOW.
New Haven, May 16, 1832.

I have witnessed the use of the above named instrument in one case of excoriated nipples; the child nursed readily, and with ease to the mother, and so far as one case could do so, satisfied me that the instrument is a valuable one, and well calculated to answer the purpose for which it is designed. Professor of Anatomy and Physic.

PERIODICALS.

AMERICAN RAILROAD JOURNAL, and Advocate of Internal Improvements, which is designed as a repository of the accounts of the rise and progress of numerous works of Internal Improvement, in the United States particularly, and in other parts of the world generally. The work is published weekly, and forms a large octavo volume each year, of 832 pages of 3 columns each, for $3 per annum, in advance.

New York Farmer, and American Gardener's Magazine. This work is designed for the agriculturist, and will be found to contain much, both interesting and profitable, to those who cultivate the soil as a business, or merely a garden for amusement. Published in monthly parts of 32 large octavo pages, with three columns each, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Mechanics' Magazine, and Register of Improvements and Inventions. To the Mechanics of the United States—In this populous and enlightened country, almost every description of persons can obtain knowledge and amusement connected with their peculiar pursuits, through the medium of the Journal or Magazine, especially devoted to their interests. The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy, has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each succeeding number will contain 64 pages, handsomely printed, and stitched in a neat cover. Six numbers will form a volume, for which an index and title page will be supplied, and also a Portrait of some distinguished Mechanic, as a Frontispiece. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S
☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,
From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.
Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.

To a person wishing to embark in a manufacturing business, and possessing capital, this would be a very desirable situation, having the advantage of both water power from Pigeon creek, and banks of the very best coal near to the works, and easy of access, and its vicinity to so navigable a river where articles of any kind are so cheaply transported to Pittsburgh.

For further particulars, apply to James P. Stuart, Merchant, Wood street, Pittsburgh, or to the subscriber on the premises.
